Dear Alumni:

The total college community thanks you for your continued encouragement and support. At no time, can anyone of us be independent of each other. Your intentions are remembered at the daily Mass said in our Avila Chapel. Wherever you are, we are united in spirit.

The earliest 1983-1984 event was the hosting of the Sisters of St. Joseph Retreat. This was special since it concentrated on our CSJ mission: the spirituality and apostolicity of our work. It is the joining of the two which gives our daily living the "forward thrust in God". With this impetus, we renew and reaffirm our life's commitment to you.

"Come home" often and share with us. We welcome you and your family to your Avila campus.

Sincerely,

Sister Olive Louise, CSJ

AVILA HOMECOMING '82

Homecoming '82 made history — all through the initiative of an enthusiastic 20-year graduate of Avila College. Sister Rose McLarney, C.S.J., '62, personally contacted all the members of her class regarding Homecoming. As she told them in her letter, "If I can come from Georgia, so can you."

Result: many famous members of the Class of '62 attended Avila Homecoming. Elizabeth Maguire Patterson, high in nursing circles, came from California and brought a table of guests to the Dinner Dance; Judy Palmer from Seattle, Washington, where she has been flying Northwestern Airlines for the past twenty years; Pat Ryan Caple from Owl's Head, Maine, where she participates in "Hurricane Outward Bound" and the most challenging races in the world; Lee Stoll Robben, Assistant Director, St. Louis University Hospitals, with husband, Dr. Garry Robben, and mother, Mrs. Ernest Stoll; Judith Pierce Hall, from Wichita, who has been active in the Dental Auxiliary at national level and who, with Dr. Hall, loves visiting their daughter, Kathy, a sophomore resident student at Avila; Ann Breslin Hess from Leavenworth, Kansas; Margaret Fuchs Dowd from Topeka; Marie Birzer Robison and husband Ed from Warrensburg.

AND — illustrious '62 alumnae came from the Area: Sister Barbara Moore, C.S.J., Chairperson of the Avila College Department of Nursing, one of twenty persons selected from the U. S. and the Caribbean as "Partners of the Americas Fellowship in International Development" who participate in seminars with twenty fellows from Latin America; Mary Borserine Wickey, who has distinguished herself in parish work, Scouting, and assisting Avila's Registrar Office at busy times; Denise Brennan, Coordinator for all Communicable Disease Control in Johnson County, Kansas; Janet Hansen O'Connor, active with husband John in prayer groups; Gail Eckert, teacher in the Blue Valley School District, with husband Bill in President's Scholarship Club at Avila; we cannot begin to mention all the wonderful wives and mothers: Alyce Soptick Elliott, Theresa Rotert Kempf, La Nora Wholey Hughes, Joan Bartholome Liston.

With all she does for her family, parish, and the elderly, La Nora still finds time to help Sister Rose Anthony in Avila Telethon each year.

Jewell Herrick "topped" the group with her presence as a Diamond Jubilarian. The Golden Jubilarians included such sterling Alumnae as: Sister Marcella Marie Holloway, C.S.J. (Grace Holloway), eminent teacher, scholar, author, whose students, during her sixteen years of teaching English and especially Creative Writing at Avila, won the Manley Trophy during twelve out of fifteen years in all divisions: Book Reviews, Poetry, Plays, and Short Stories; Virginia Hogan Murphy, Secretary to Joyce Hall and later Administrator of the Hallmark Foundation; Kathryn Meiners Ruisinger, Scholarship Sponsor, Alumni Board member, and Avila Medalist for her service to Avila; Mary Ruark Meurer, active in Avila Friends of the Library; Zona Mae Downs Triplett, past Alumni Treasurer, active in Bridge Marathon, Avila medalist, outstanding business woman, Alumna daughter; Dolores McGovern Riley, Alumna

Board member for many years; Glenna Capen Hughes, active in administration at Notre Dame de Sion High School with an Alumna daughter active in Women's Hunger.

The Silver Jubilarians were so GREAT! Maureen White O'Connor and husband Dennis came from Minneapolis, Minnesota — she has been representing Avila in the Minneapolis, St. Paul Area; Mary Agnes Medill Kitchin, Vice President of the Avila Alumni Board and active in a host of worthwhile activities with husband Jack; Aileen Conlan Steffen, who teaches at Good Shepherd's Center and husband, Dr. Lawrence, who visits nursing homes; Blanche Greathouse Walker, Mathematics Consultant and active in the Women's Chamber of Commerce, bringing students to Avila each year for the Citizenship Forum, brought five guests to the Mass and Brunch and as many to the Dinner Dance; Mary Ross Lyndon, teacher, and husband Tom, so "thrilled" about Homecoming; Eleanor Danzo Rupard and husband John, active in the French Honor Society and so supportive of Avila Homecoming each year; Mary Ann McCowen Tilton and husband Dr. Frank from Wichita; Carolyn McGrath Reinhart, who, with sister Sheila, ran the Avila Bridge Marathon for some years; Marilyn Luckett Fleming, past Alumni Board Secretary — these are just a few of the beautiful 25-year graduates "gracing" Homecoming.

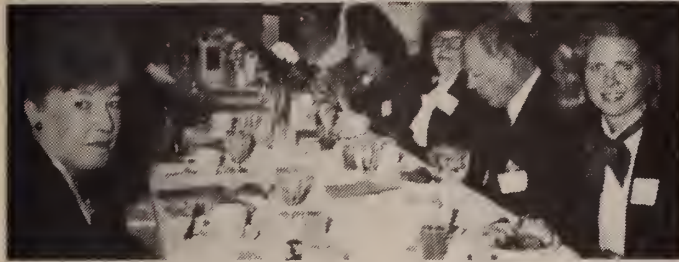

The Ten-Year and Five-Year Alumni engaged in rivalry! Cathy Fick McDaniel '72 was awarded the Avila Sweatshirt for being the Mother at the Brunch who had the youngest baby, born April 28 — defeating Georgia Bahr Schmittling '77 whose son, Lance Henry, was born on April 6. Kathy Riggs Noll '72 and husband Richard came from Denver, Colorado. Leona Dreiling Werth '72, who has three granddaughters attending Avila, and Michelle Kerwin '72 came with her mother, Clara Aylward Kerwin '36, and her two aunts: Catherine Aylward Hayes '38 and Mary Louise Aylward Snitzmier '44. Among the '77 Alumni present were: Ann-Marie Ottley and her mother, Joanne Lester Ottley '35; Larry Morris (who in undergraduate days applied his principles of physics in flying actors and actresses in Peter Pan across Goppert Theatre — literally) and his wife, Carol-Rea Sciortino Morris '78; Clara Margaret Knapp, who has two Alumnae sisters; Carol Hummel and her mother; Bertha Unruh Gervy and husband Larry; and Teacher Corps teachers: Anna Mae Dial and Deborah Haskins.

Laurelle O'Leary, '38

A group of Kansas Citians is exulting in the fact that Missouri is now providing financial reimbursement to people who have someone who needs the services of adult day-care centers, a program Kansas became one of the first states to adopt. Laurelle O'Leary '38, a Kansas City Avila alumna who joined others in the effort to get the General Assembly to pass legislation to provide the financing in Missouri, said, "The passage of the bill will mean that families seeking a choice in care for a declining family member, elderly or disabled, will be able to choose care at a day-care center while family members work, or if they simply need assistance with daytime care of their loved ones." Because of her constant, dedicated efforts to this important cause, Sister Olive Louise bestowed the Avila Medal of Honor on Laurelle at Homecoming '82.

Alumni Admissions Representatives

The following Avila Alumni are currently serving as "Alumni Representatives" for the Admissions Office in their hometown areas:

Susan Ross Bingold '59 — Cambridge, Minnesota
Rita McGrann Boyle '56 — Tulsa, Oklahoma
Mary Christon Dickinson '75 — Littleton, Colorado
Cherie Hymes '72 — Albuquerque, New Mexico
Judy Pierce Hall '62 — Wichita, Kansas
Mary Ann Teixeira '76 — Ft. Worth, Texas
Theresa Doyle Witt '82 — Springfield, Missouri

These Alums are assisting in Avila's recruitment effort by representing the College at area college day/night programs and school visits as well as telephoning prospective students. Through their volunteer efforts, we are able to better service out-state and out-of-state high school students who have expressed an interest in learning more about Avila.

Any Alumni interested in serving in a similar capacity may contact Deb Lewis (816) 942-8400, Extension 203, in the Admissions Office.

Steer Dinner

The Steer Dinner, celebrating the twenty years Avila has been on this campus, will be held January 27 in Marian Centre. Among the attendance prizes is a trip to Europe for two.

Special Benefit Grant

Children of Alumni parents will receive a special benefit grant of $250 toward tuition at Avila in the 1983-1984 recruitment, which becomes effective in 1984-1985. This benefit grant is in observance of our twenty-year presence on this campus.

Alumni Volunteers

Some years ago, when they attended Avila, two young ladies used to meet on the Country Club Street-car "of happy memory" (Every student did not have a car in those days.), and then cheerfully "trudge" up the hill from 56th and Brookside and cross Main Street and the rightly named "Windmoor" campus at 5600 Main: Joanne Lester '35 and Ruth Marie Schmitt '36. Now they work and lunch together (When the student Mass is at noon, they pray together.) each Monday and Wednesday. Joanne, now Joanne Lester Ottley (husband Larry is deceased and Joanne has retired), whose daughter Ann-Marie is also an Avila alumna, volunteers two days a week to help Ruth Marie, now known as Sister Rose Anthony, CSJ, in the Alumni Office. Other wonderful helpers in the Alumni Telethon are Ann LaBonte Hennessey '64, Mary Alice Rose '65, Mary Gent Gordon '48, Pat Bartholome '69, Nancy Barr '75, Pat Breed '63, Kathryn Batliner Dierks '43, Mary McNamara Switzer '31, Pat Cronin Hardin '79 — to name a few. Some Alumni joyfully set aside a night a week in the spring to help Sister in Telethon. Helen Haglund '67 and husband James give unstintingly of their time and effort to assist. Why not YOU? Just call Sister Rose Anthony at 942-8400 and see what you can work out by way of volunteer help.

Honors Convocation

At the twentieth Honors Convocation on the new campus, May 7, Avila College recognized four twenty-year members of the college community: Sister Marie Georgette Eschbacher, CSJ, Chairman, Department of Education and Psychology; Sister Ann Dominic Tassone, CSJ, Professor of Mathematics; Mrs. Marion Giesing, Administrative Assistant, Nursing Department; and Arthur Schlumpberger, Chief Maintenance Engineer.

The ten-year honorees were Dr. Edward Donovan, Professor of Biology; Dr. Paul LeMaire, Professor, Religious Studies; Dr. William Louis, Professor, Theatre; Dr. Robert Powell, Professor, Biology; Dr. Larry Sullivan, Professor, Chemistry; Sister Mary Fitzpatrick, CSJ, Professor, Mathematics; Pat Coleman, Director of Affirmative Action; Anita Seibolt, Assistant Registrar; Dave Gebauer, Maintenance Engineer.

Receiving the Avila Plaque of Distinction for dedicated and committed service, spanning decade/s were Sister Germaine Matter, CSJ, Professor of French; Sister Rose Anthony Schmitt, CSJ, Alumni Secretary; G. Richard Scott, Academic Dean; and Mrs. Vita M. Goppert, Avila First Lady.

The Avila Medal was awarded to Sister Elaine Margaret Besand, CSJ, Assistant Bookstore Manager, and two 1983 graduates, William Patrick Roche and Dorothy Chanslor, elected by Faculty and Staff for their dedicated and committed service to the college and their peers.

Sister Joan Lampton received the Outstanding Faculty Award presented by the Avila College Student Government.
